

Life Drawing Studio Group

Summer 2010

The Life Drawing Studio Group would like to invite all serious artists that are interested in drawing from the figure to enroll in our Summer Series of studio workshops. A variety of exercises are done at each of our three-hour studio sessions, ranging from quick gesture sketches to twenty-minute studies. It's a fantastic way for visual artists to work from the live model, hone their skills and keep in practice.

The Studio Group has met at WAC continually, year-round, for the last 15 years, on several Wednesday evenings and several Saturday mornings each month. Wednesday evening sessions begin at 7 p.m. and Saturday morning sessions start at 10 a.m. For further information please email eyewerksstudio@yahoo.com, or call the program director, Brian, at 973-857-3098.

Artists under the age of 18 must have parental permission. Photography, wet or dust producing media and solicitation of models are strictly prohibited.
